

Adam M. Thompson (AbstractMiami)

Adam Thompson is a multi-talented artist hailing from Philadelphia and now based in Miami. He has honed his craft in abstract painting and installations, using his unique vision and perspective to create captivating works of art. Adam's education at the University of Pennsylvania, where he studied Architecture and English with a focus in creative writing, has had a profound impact on his work.

In 2008, his talent was acknowledged by SOFI Magazine, which named him one of the "33 Emerging Creative Artists You Need to Know." This recognition helped launch his career and led to his first Art Basel show at the Red Steakhouse rooftop.

Since then, Adam has been selling and exhibiting his work globally. His pieces can be found in homes, museums, and walls in locations ranging from Los Angeles to Milan, and have even been listed in the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Adam's work has received wide recognition, with features in various media outlets such as Vanity Fair, CNBC, and NPR.
